*CHOSEN TO 2009 SUPER LAWYERS

Through their philanthropic efforts the firm lends voice and strength to its clients not merely in the courtroom, but in the community as well.

ARMED WITH THE PASSION TO BE THE GOLD STANDARD TOWARD which other boutique law firms aspire, Ferro, Kuba, Mangano, Sklyar, P.C. continues to be innovative in its approach to the legal matters it handles. From its newly relocated offices in Manhattan, to its use of cutting-edge software and technology, the firm never stops looking for ways to improve on its already stellar reputation in the legal community.

The firm is honored to have its managing partner, William V. Ferro, named to the 2009 New York Super Lawyers® list. Ferro is most proud of his career accomplishments as a criminal and civil trial attorney, and has many successful high-profile cases to his credit. His clients have included law enforcement personnel, alleged drug cartel leaders, businessmen accused of heading some of Chinatown's most notorious gangs, prominent musicians, as well as others. He remains unwavering in his passion for upholding the Constitution and giving each of his clients their day in court.

The firm's renowned personal injury practice remains unique in that it maintains a high volume of cases yet is structured and operates with a boutique mentality. Under the guidance of partner Kenneth E. Mangano, the firm's major case unit has recently secured verdicts or settlements of $3.75 million, $3.3 million, $2.5 million and $1.9 million. Notably, these cases were resolved in some of New York State's most difficult venues.

In these difficult economic times, the firm's commercial transaction and real estate practice has actually grown in volume and complexity. The firm's client list includes institutional lenders, mortgage banks, insurance companies and various businesses. Additionally, the commercial department continues to be an industry leader in the financing of taxi medallions. On pace to close in excess of one thousand deals this year, the firm credits its outstanding success to the attention to detail and close client relationships maintained by founding partner Lance E. Kuba, partner Adelina M. Sklyar, as well as their paralegals and support team.

Beyond the firm's commitment to its clients, Ferro, Kuba, Mangano, Sklyar, P.C. is actively involved in assisting local communities. The firm has held toy drives, food drives, provided school supplies, flu vaccines, financial scholarship assistance and other support to those in need. Through these philanthropic efforts Ferro, Kuba, Mangano, Sklyar, P.C. lends voice and strength to its clients not merely in the courtroom, but in the community as well.
